BIO

I'm an award winning Director, Writer, Producer, Editor and Comedian with 22 years of experience whose work has amassed over 16million views online. With clients such as BBC Three, Radio 4, Spotify and Coca-Cola I have a deep understanding of authentic stories as a Writer/Director while having a strong grasp of the economics of a successful production through masterful logistics as a Producer. Versatility, on-point communication and an in-depth understanding of the medium and all production roles make me the most useful person in a production. When I'm not filmmaking I love teaching snowboarding in Italy.
