

NADIA CAVELLE

18 Battlebridge Court, Wharfdale Road, London N1 9UA
075 64 02 26 00 / nadia.cavelle@gmail.com / www.wovenvoices.org

Nationality

Swiss and French

Languages

Native English and French speaker

Fluent German speaker

WRITER DIRECTOR

Lascivious Grace, 2017 (short film, 19min). Dir. by Nadia Cavelle, produced by Melissa Johnson-Peters and Rienkje Attoh, cast by Jeremy Zimmerman, starring Ronke Adekoluejo and Henry Garrett www.lasciviousgracefilm.com

- Nominated for the Writing and Acting (Ronke Adekoluejo) Awards at the BAFTA-qualifying Underwire Film Festival 2018.

Girls Don't Cry, 2017 (short film, 8min). Dir. by Nadia Cavelle

<https://vimeo.com/225586571>

WRITER

Roxane, 2017 (stage play).

A one-woman show exploring the psyche of a so-called 'trailing spouse'

Workshopped during one-week Artistic Residency at the Salle A3, Montpellier

Bruises, 2015 (stage play). Dir. by Jean-Claude Fall and produced by Ben Weaver-Hincks for Woven Voices at The Tabard Theatre (three-week run)

www.wovenvoices.org

"With its literary overtones, its fearlessness in asking questions and its mature voice, Cavelle's venture into the underbelly of society is all the more remarkable for being her debut play."

★★★★★ Female Arts

Talking Traffic, 2014 (short film, 9min). Dir. by Nathaniel Martello-White and Will Thorne for Break Em Films, starring Alistair McGowan

<https://vimeo.com/109116162>

- Nominated for Best Dramatic Short at The Women's International Arts and Film Festival in Miami Beach 2015
- Nominated for Audience Award at Les Rencontres du Court in Montpellier 2016

EDUCATION

09/2012 – 09/2013	MA in Acting, The Drama Centre, University of the Arts London , graduating with Merit
04/2003 – 10/2009	MA in English, French and Comparative Literature at Zürich University , graduating with Distinction
1997 – 2002	High School and Graduation, Lycée Français de Zürich (French School), Switzerland French Baccalaureate in Economics with Merit
1993 – 1997	Middle School, French International, Hong Kong
1991 – 1993	Primary School, Canadian Academy, Kobe, Japan
1988 – 1991	Primary School, English International School, Manila, Philippines