PROFILE

Kieran Bourne directed the BAFTA Qualifying 'Poles' and wrote the Film London Microwave shortlisted 'Beneath the Mind'. His reputation was built on crafting original dramas exploring unconventional narratives with female protagonists. After shadowing on the iconic British TV shows 'Eastenders' and 'Casualty,' Bourne then moved into theatre, directing a millennial interpretation of 'Uncle Vanya' and the challenging psychological thriller 'Savannah' starring Olivier Award nominee Jamael Westman ('Hamilton'; 'Patriots'). A versatile filmmaker, utilising classical and experimental cinematic techniques, his knowledge and expertise as a Director and Writer across mediums has established Bourne as a unique and authoritative voice.
