PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am an award-winning, critically acclaimed documentary producer/director. My TV credits include high profile history, travelogue, arts, music and presenter-led documentaries. I have also made a number of short campaigning films for the NGO/Charity sector as well as corporate videos and personal projects.

Whether working with presenters or members of the public, whether on scripted films or observational docs, I have always delivered films with compelling stories, emotional depth, stylish visuals & strong performances. Selected clips can be seen at Francis Hanly Films

Over the course of my career I've worked with a wide range of stakeholders. I have always ensured that I take a flexible approach, developing positive relationships and enabling trust. I am naturally calm and work well under pressure.
