

Lucy Campbell won a Royal Television Society Best Fiction Award for her graduation film in 2011, and in the same year was a finalist in Virgin Media Shorts with The Friend Catcher. Her films have been programmed in multiple UK and international festivals. Originally studying English literature and creative writing, she subsequently trained and worked as a medical doctor (GP) alongside working as an artist and filmmaker. She has four children.

Short film

THE PIG CHILD (writer/director 2014) - Winner Best Actress, Best Cinematography.

MARINA & ADRIENNE (writer/director 2016) - Winner best screenplay Shakespeare's Sister competition, Film London and British Council. Nominated Best Director at London Short Film Festival, Winner Best Producer at Underwire).

SLIDING (writer/director 2017) - Underwire Festival (shortlisted, best production design)

SQUEAL (writer/director 2016) Film4 FRIGHTBITES, Halloween 2016, broadcast on Film4/All4. Nominated Broadcast Digital Award 2017, Winner Best Director Women in Horror Film Festival, US.

LIPPY (writer/director 2018) commissioned by Fox Digital/20th Century Fox/Hulu, broadcast on Hulu, Halloween 2018.

TV

THE MANY PLACE Creeped Out Episode 10 (25 mins) CBBC/DHX Canada 2019 (Director)

Feature projects

PIG CHILD in development with BFI, Delaval Film/Vision Award. Award winning writer Dawn King now on board as writer.

MONKEYBOY feature screenplay shortlisted for SUNDANCE WRITERS' LAB 2018. In development with Delaval Film's Vision Award. Developed on Adapt to Film 2016-17 (Creative Skillset/Nottingham Broadway, Anna Siefert Speck and Caroline Cooper Charles)

Feature project INSECT in development with Fox Digital Studios/20th Century Fox/Hulu 2019 (attached as writer/director)

Industry Training and Development

FilmWorks (Colin Pons/Sheffield Workstation) 2012

Network EIFF 2013-14: (Kate Leys/Peter Ettedgui)

Adapt to Film 2016-17 (Creative Skillset/Nottingham Broadway) with Anna Siefert Speck and Caroline Cooper Charles)

Edinburgh International Film Festival Talent Lab alumni 2017

Weekender (BFI) Genre film development lab. November 2017

Lucy Campbell is a member of Directors UK

She is represented by Ikenna Obiekwe at Independent Talent.