AWARDS: America: The Story of Us / Ten Days to D-Day Emmy Winners

I am a leading documentary film maker, expert at crafting great stories, handling big budgets and drawing incredible performances from 'A' list contributors. My films are visually exciting, journalistically compelling, and emotionally powerful. I'm now attached to my first original drama for BBC One with a commissioned script by a top writer. While developing my drama slate, I'm still making incredible documentaries on big subjects with worldwide appeal. I'm a fluent French speaker, with global credits on CNN, Sky, PBS, History, Discovery, SBS Australia, Al Jazeera, ABC, France 2 and Prime time specialist factual/arts credits across all British channels.
