PROFILE

I have directed many high-profile drama series and an award winning drama documentary. My work is recognised as being cinematic, stylish and featuring strong, natural performances. I studied the Stanislavsky based acting technique, 'The Art and Craft of Acting' and I have specialist experience in shooting for VFX, action and stunts. I'm currently developing a number of movie projects, primarily thrillers set in the USA, which I'm producing and directing, along with TV series for terrestrial broadcasters and SVOD platforms.
