

Profile

Dave Skinner is nothing short of impressive. A BAFTA & RTS award winning multi camera director & producer with a diverse portfolio spanning over 30 years he has worked as a producer, series producer, executive producer and single camera director but is best known for directing multi camera, outside broadcast and studio based programming (live & pre-recorded) around the world. He has covered a myriad of genres in the industry from live stadium music concerts to live magazine shows and everything in between, including high profile red carpet events, game shows and even scripted comedy, his expertise is far reaching. He is well versed in terrestrial & digital broadcasting on all the main channels and his involvement with online platforms like YouTube, Facebook & TikTok from the early stages shows his adaptability to changing media landscapes. His work consulting on numerous international projects, including several in China, proves his expertise is far-reaching. Mentoring prestigious institutions, such as National Film and Television school, Edge Hill University and Salford University further highlights his dedication to nurturing the next generation of TV talent. It's no wonder that he has built strong relationships with major broadcasters and production companies worldwide. A true industry stalwart.
