STATEMENT

My career started with a theatre commission from The Lincoln Company, co-directing a physical theatre piece for the TLC's Edinburgh Fringe Tour 2014. In 2016 I was commissioned by Channel 4/Creative England Random Acts programme to direct and choreograph Name, a short dance film now available on the Channel 4 website.

My short film Searching for Cowardice was created as part of the BBC New Creatives programme and broadcast as part of BBC4's Female Filmmakers screening. Searching for Cowardice is now being adapted as a TV series with BFI Young Audience Content Fund and was selected for the Torino Series Lab 2021.

My BFI Network Short film 'POP' has screened at BAFTA & BFIA qualifying festivals Bolton, Underwire, British Shorts Berlin and Iris Prize 2021, where it was nominated and placed in the top 3 for the Best of British category. POP is available to watch on All 4. My most recent short film Monitor is a collaboration with writer Ben Norris and Producer Isabelle De Rosario and has been funded by BBC Films and BFI SE.
